

DEFEND WASHINGTON

FROM

INVASIVE SPECIES

Sudden Oak Death is a deadly invasive plant disease often characterized by red patches and dark oozing sap on infected tree trunks.

It's not too late to stop it from infecting Washington—and you can help.

BE A FIRST DETECTOR

Join the First Detector Network at

InvasiveSpecies.wa.gov

For more information on invasive plant diseases, visit hortsense.cahnrs.wsu.edu or submit photos/samples of suspected infected plants to dddi.org/ws

art and design by Kenzi Smith

